JOSEPH ROBBIE
Managing General Partner

A challenge—that's all Joseph Robbie ever needs.

Sell tickets to professional football games in Miami. They said it couldn't be done. But Joe Robbie did it.

Make the Dolphins a winner. They laughed at the thought. But Joe Robbie did it.

And, now, they're wondering out loud what the Dolphins can do for an encore after the 1972 campaign that produced an unblemished 17-0 record.

So, the future is the newest challenge for Joe Robbie, and the managing general partner of the Dolphins is only too ready to meet it head-on, as he has the challenges that already have been conquered.

"It's easier to become a winner than to stay a winner," Robbie admits frankly. But, then, characteristically, he challenges the challenge:

"The great days are ahead."

But while Robbie feels there are great days ahead, he still likes to revel in the euphoria of the immediate past, reflected by his feeling that the Dolphins climb to the top of pro football's world in just seven years under his guidance "is like a living dream."

Dreams, however, are not what Robbie's world is made of. Robbie's world consists of looking at the facts through his own eyes, making his own determination about how to treat with the facts—and then moving inexorably toward the chosen goal. It has been that way in the past—and likely will be that way in the future.

The past is now emblazoned in history, the Dolphins having pulled a city of diverse people together in one massive ball of support while climbing from expansion team to championship team in record time.

"Community leaders have told me that the Dolphins are the first enterprise the people of Miami have ever been totally behind," says Robbie. "There are 1.2 million people in Dade County (Miami) and two million more

DONALD F. SHULA
Head Coach — Vice President

Don Shula, the head coach of the Miami Dolphins, had just climbed down off the shoulders of his jubilant players after a 14-7 victory over Washington in Super Bowl VII. Now he was standing, atop a makeshift platform, accepting the Vince Lombardi Trophy from Commissioner Pete Rozelle while the hot television klieg lights blazed in his face.

And he was telling what that moment meant to him:

"This is the greatest moment in my coaching life. I've had some great moments, but I've always felt that this was something I wanted and needed to accomplish. Now we can let the record speak for itself. We have gone unbeaten and won the big one—and nobody else has done that.

"This is the ultimate."

The Ultimate.

Don Shula and the ultimate met more than once during the 1972 season, and when it was all over there was no arguing his stature among the coaches who had prowled the sidelines during the 53-year history of the National Football League.

For, during 1972, Don Shula accomplished two feats never before achieved in the entire history of organized professional football:

—Taken the Dolphins through a 17-0 season, the first time any team ever had gone through the regular season and post season without a defeat.

—Brought his victory total to 105 in a 10-year career, becoming the first coach in the annals of the NFL to ever reach the 100-victory plateau in his first 10 years.

In addition, he had lifted his three-year record since

ASSISTANT COACHES

BILL ARNSPARGER
Assistant Head Coach

Bill Arnsparger, head of the defensive coaching staff, is the architect of the Dolphins' No-Name Defense which permitted the least points in the National Football League during the 1972 season.

The Dolphins' points-allowed statistics have steadily decreased since Arnsparger's arrival in Miami in 1970. For that first season, it was 228; in 1971, 174; and in 1972, an all-time team record was established with just 171 points allowed. That included three shutouts. Before Arnsparger arrived, the 1969 Dolphins' defense had permitted 332 points.

Arnsparger has been with Head Coach Don Shula for nine years in the pros, joining Shula at Baltimore in 1964. They have been side-by-side ever since. Prior to the start of the 1973 season, Coach Shula elevated Arnsparger to the position of assistant head coach "to give him more responsibility and recognition for his contributions to the Dolphins' success. Bill's primary responsibility will be the overall defense. But, he will also be second in command and some of my overall duties will be delegated to him."

One of Arnsparger's responsibilities is developing young linebackers. Two of his products, Mike Kolen and Doug Swift, have played key roles in Miami's success, working with middle linebacker Nick Buoniconti.

Arnsparger is a native of Paris, Kentucky, where he played football at Paris High. Following a Marine tour of duty during WWII, he played tackle at Miami (Ohio) University.

His first coaching assignment was the offensive line at his alma mater (1950). He later coached at Ohio State (1951-53), Kentucky (1954-61), where he and Coach Shula began working together as assistant coaches, and Tulane (1962-63).

Arnsparger, 46, (born December 16, 1926) and his wife Betty Jane have two children, David and Mary Susan, and live in Miami Lakes.

MONTE CLARK
Offensive Line

"Our keys are two four-letter words. Want and Work. Want to be the best and work to be the best."

Those are the words that offensive line coach Monte Clark uses to motivate his men. And it works. In 1972 the Dolphins set an all-time National Football League rushing record with 2960 yards. And for the third straight year the Dolphins had the top rushing attack in the AFC. It was also the third straight year that Monte Clark was the Dolphins' offensive line coach.

Before Clark came to the Dolphins in 1970, ending his 11-year career as a professional football player, the Miami Dolphins' quarterbacks were prime targets for the oppositions' defense, Miami's top quarterback having been sacked 53 times in just nine games. Clark and his "Expendables" set a goal of no more than 20 sacks in the 1972 season. They almost reached that target with 21.

Clark came to Miami after 11 years as a top lineman in the NFL. He began his pro playing career as a defensive player for San Francisco, a fourth round draft choice from Southern California. Traded to Dallas in 1962, he was moved to the offensive tackle slot. He went to Cleveland in 1963 and was the starting right tackle in four NFL title games.

Clark was born in Fillmore, California, on January 24, 1937. He played ball at Kingsbury (Calif.) High and went on to become captain of the 1958 University of Southern California team, his senior year.

Clark and his wife Charlotte live in southwest Miami with their three sons, Bryan, Randy and Eric.

TOM KEANE
Defensive Backfield

Since the inception of the Dolphins, defensive backfield coach Tom Keane has watched the team grow through defeats and victories, ultimately rising to become the World Champions in 1972. Keane, who came to the Dolphins in 1966, is the only member of the coaching staff who remembers first hand the first Dolphin days.

As the defensive backfield coach, Keane's responsibility is building a strong corps of pass defenders. In 1971 he molded Jake Scott, Dick Anderson, Curtis Johnson and Tim Foley into a standout unit. In 1972 he worked with Lloyd Mumphord as a prime weapon in the Nickel Defense.

As in 1971, the backfield allowed only 10 touchdown passes. It was credited with 18 of the 26 interceptions by the defense during the 1972 season.

Keane is a 16-year pro coaching veteran, having started his career in 1956 with the then Chicago Cardinals. He moved to Calgary in the Canadian Football League in 1960 and was head coach and general manager of Wheeling in the United League from 1961-64. He became an assistant coach at Pittsburgh in 1965 before coming to Miami.

His college playing career began as a freshman No. 1 quarterback for Ohio State's 1944 national champions, followed by two years at West Virginia U. after service in the Navy during WWII.

In the pros, he was a defensive back in the NFL starting with Los Angeles in 1948, then in 1952 with both Dallas and Baltimore, gaining All-Pro status with the Colts in 1953. In 1955 he was traded to Chicago, where a knee injury ended his career.

Keane was born September 7, 1926, at Bellaire, Ohio. He and his wife Mary live in southwest Miami and have four children, Candi, Tom, Tim, and Mary.

BILL McPEAK
Offensive Coach

Bill McPeak, whose pro coaching career spans 15 seasons, is the new offensive coach of the Miami Dolphins, filling the vacancy created by the departure of Howard Schnellenberger. McPeak is the only new addition to the Dolphins' coaching staff in three years.

McPeak came to the Dolphins from the Detroit Lions, where since 1967 he had been primarily responsible for the increased production of the Lions' offensive unit. His main responsibility with the Dolphins will be the pass.

"McPeak has been in every phase of the game—he's been a player, assistant coach, head coach," says Head Coach Don Shula. "He's a proven coach who is directly responsible for the resurgence of the Detroit offense over the last couple of years."

McPeak played for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1949 through 1957, beginning his coaching career as an assistant coach his last two years with that club. He was with Washington from 1959 to 1965—the last five years as a head coach—and then joined the Lions in 1967.

McPeak, 46, was born on July 24, 1926, in New Castle, Pennsylvania. He has one daughter, Leslie Ann.

MIKE SCARRY
Defensive Line

Mike "Mo" Scarry came to Miami as defensive line coach in 1970. In just three years he worked to rebuild the Dolphins' front four into an awesome defensive line.

When the 1972 season began, Manny Fernandez and Bill Stanfill were mainstays, but two holes had to be filled. Scarry proceeded to work with Jim Dunaway, a nine-year veteran acquired from Buffalo, and Vern Den Herder, who was advanced from the specialty teams. The front four was formed. Then, when Dunaway was injured early in the season, Bob Heinz stepped in.

Scarry's 23 years' experience paid off each of the 33 times the opposition's quarterback was sacked, and in the 306 tackles and assists amassed by the front four during the 1972 season.

Scarry began his coaching career at his alma mater, Western Reserve, in 1948-49, and continued at Santa Clara (1950-52), Loras (Iowa) College (1953), Washington State (1954-55), Cincinnati (1956-62) and Waynesburg (Pa.) College (1963-65).

From Waynesburg, he went to the pro ranks as a defensive line coach for the Washington Redskins from 1966 thru 1968, then scouted for San Francisco in 1969 before he came to Miami.

"Mo" Scarry began his pro football playing career in 1944 after serving two years in the Army. He had the unusual honor of being the captain of two teams in two different leagues, both of which won league championships. In 1945 he was captain of the Cleveland Rams, winners of the National Football League title. In 1946 he became captain of the first Cleveland Browns team, in the All-America Conference. In 1964, he was elected to the NAIA Hall of Fame.

Scarry, born on February 1, 1920, is a native of Duquesne, Pennsylvania. He and his wife Elizabeth live in Miami and have eight children.

CARL TASEFF
Offensive Backfield

In all three years Carl Taseff has been offensive backfield coach for the Dolphins, Miami has led the American Football Conference in rushing.

During the 1972 season, the Dolphins set all-time team and National Football League rushing records. And for the first time in NFL history, two runners in the same backfield each reached the coveted 1,000-yard mark—Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris.

Adding to that the skills of Jim Kiick, the Dolphins went on to establish another all-time NFL feat—the rushing record, with 2960 yards. Three of Taseff's backs, Csonka, Kiick and Morris, claimed 2638 of those yards.

A former teammate of Head Coach Don Shula at John Carroll University and in the pros at Cleveland and Baltimore, Taseff rejoined Shula here after serving the CEPO scouting organization for two years.

As a player, he was with Cleveland in 1951 and 1952 and Baltimore from 1953 through 1961, finishing his playing career with Buffalo in 1962.

Taseff was born in Cleveland. He has two daughters, Cynthia Sue and Susan Alice.

PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT
A. PAT PEPPLER
Director of Pro Scouting

Pat Peppler is well experienced at working with veteran football players on a championship team—he came to Miami from Green Bay, where he was Personnel Director during the Packers' prime years and was assistant to the General Manager in 1971. He considers his major accomplishment at Green Bay the 1965 draft when the Packers drafted and signed three first round picks.

Peppler, 41, joined the Miami club in the spring of 1971 following a nine-year stint at Green Bay. His major responsibilities at Miami are negotiations with veteran ball players at contract time and keeping himself informed about the abilities of all veteran players throughout the league.

Peppler attended Michigan State University where he lettered in baseball and basketball. After graduating in 1948, Peppler played pro baseball briefly before beginning a successful career coaching in the East Lansing area. He coached state championship teams in football before taking a position as assistant coach at North Carolina State University for eight years, working with centers and linebackers. In 1962, he switched to Wake Forest and in 1963, went to Green Bay as Director of Player Personnel.

Peppler is married and has six children. The family lives in Plantation.

BOBBY BEATHARD
Director of Player Personnel

With football in his blood, it was only natural that Bobby Beathard turn to a front office position when he was cut as a player.

Beathard was a quarterback and safety prospect at Washington and Minnesota and then hooked on with San Diego —for five games—in 1960. Since then, he's discovered a world of happiness in the field of scouting.

His major responsibility at Miami is co-ordinating the scouting efforts of three other full-time scouts and a pair of part-time talent seekers. They deal only with college material and work closely with the results of the computer scouting firm BLESTO-VIII to continue the development of good young talent for the Miami Dolphins.

The 36-year-old Beathard, older brother of quarterback Pete, came to Miami in 1972 after four years as a member of the Atlanta Falcons scouting force. Prior to that he was a scout for Kansas City and an aide to Al Davis when Davis was commissioner of the American Football League.

Beathard is the father of four children—three sons and a daughter. He lives on Key Biscayne.

DOLPHINS SCOUTING STAFF

Scouts: Sil Cornachione, Richard Daniels, Les Miller, Doug Minner, Floyd Peters.

LARRY GARDNER
Trainer

Larry Gardner is the newest member of the Miami Dolphins camp staff, having joined the Dolphins in April of 1973 as head trainer.

Gardner, 34, comes to the Dolphins from the Dallas Cowboys, whom he served as co-trainer from 1965-72. He is a graduate of McNeese State and the Hermann Hospital School of Physical Therapy in Houston. He spent two years on the University of California staff, with time out for a six-month tour of Army duty, then spent a year as football trainer at Stanford.

Gardner has served two full terms as president of the Professional Football Trainers group. He and his wife Carol have one son and one daughter.

DAN DOWE
Equipment Manager

Head equipment manager of the Dolphins since 1968, Dan Dowe joined the original cast of the club in 1966 as assistant equipment manager.

A native of Brighton, Mass., he graduated from Brighton High School, where he participated in all sports.

A Navy veteran of WWII, he formerly worked for the Raytheon Corp. in the industrial electronics field, for the Martin Co. as an aerospace lab technician and as a police officer for the Miami Beach suburb of Bal Harbour before joining the Dolphins.

Dowe and his wife Virginia live in North Miami along with their son, Darin.

on the Gold Coast (50 miles in either direction) and most of them are working people. They buy their cars on time, have a few beers on pay day and pull for the Dolphins every time out.

"Our football team belongs to people who never had a team of their own before. We get 91 per cent of our fans from within 50 miles of the stadium. They're mostly working people—whites, blacks, Latins. There's a deep empathy between them and the team."

That deep empathy, that bringing together of people in support of the aqua and orange is best reflected in the fact that the Dolphins stand No. 1 all-time among the NFL's 26 teams in season ticket sales with 78,000 fans ticketed for every game, pre-season and regular season.

It all began on August 15, 1965, when Robbie was formally granted a franchise for Miami, a city that had failed in its only previous attempt to support pro football. But Robbie determined that Miami could do it, although he found himself involved only by circumstance. An attorney by profession, Robbie only came into the picture when one of his clients expressed interest in a franchise for Philadelphia.

"Joe Foss, then the commissioner of the AFL, and I had been classmates in college and our friendship went a long way back," says Robbie. "When I approached Joe about a Philadelphia franchise, he told me the stadium there was in litigation. He said there would be a good chance of getting a team for Miami but not for Philadelphia. He called Miami the best open city for a pro football franchise. I told my client. He was not interested in Miami.

"So I decided to apply for the franchise there. The rest is history."

History shows years of struggle before the ultimate success story was finally written. It wasn't even until 1968, in their third season, that the Dolphins fans supported Robbie's vision that the struggle would wind up in success.

The date was August 31, 1968. The lure was the Baltimore Colts, with Johnny Unitas at quarterback. The response was a crowd of 68,125 fans rushing to the Orange Bowl to see the Dolphins tangle with the Colts.

"That's when I knew beyond all doubt that our struggle would succeed," Robbie remembers.

While that 1968 game showed Robbie Miami would support pro football in a manner which it had to in order to keep the product viable, possibly the most important decision made by Robbie didn't occur until 1970.

The actual date involved then was February 18, 1970, the day Robbie presented Don Shula as the new head coach of the Dolphins. The Robbie-Shula combination clicked instantly. That first season Shula took a team that had a 3-10-1 record the year before and turned it into a 10-4 team.

A year later the Dolphins captured the American Conference championship and on January 14, 1973, reached the pinnacle of success by beating Washington 14-7 in Super Bowl VII for the championship of the National Football League.

Robbie's success story, however, isn't limited to the Dolphins. He is and has been a key executive in the NFL's inner councils, currently serving as one of six owners on the Executive Committee of the NFL Management Council.

But Joseph Robbie's interests don't stop with football. He believes in working with and for his community. "If we expect this area to support us," he emphasizes, "we must support the area." And, in the years he has run the Dolphins, Robbie has run all around Florida immersing himself in one worthy cause after another.

Robbie, who is a member of the Greater Miami Chamber of Commerce, and United Fund Board of Directors and the Downtown Kiwanis Club, has through pre-season charity games and other activities been responsibile for the contribution of more than one-half million dollars for such benefactors as the Crippled Children's Society, Variety Children's Hospital, Goodwill Industries, the Greg Stead Fund, Boystown of South Florida, Big Brothers, Archbishop's Charities, Operation Self-Help and the Miami Dolphins-Larry Little Summer Camp for underprivileged children. He also is Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Metro Dade Community Relations Board and general campaign chairman for the Heart Association of Greater Miami.

Through Robbie and because of his interest in community support of higher education the Dolphins have also helped Biscayne College, Barry College, the University of Miami, Florida Memorial College and Miami-Dade Community College. Biscayne College has conferred on Robbie an honorary Doctor of Laws Degree.

Robbie, 56, is a native of Sisseton, South Dakota. He began his college days at Northern State Teachers' College in Aberdeen, South Dakota. He later transferred to the University of South Dakota, where he became a national debate champion. In addition, he was elected student government president of both and president of the South Dakota Student Federation and the statewide Collegiate Press Association. He received his AB and LLB degrees from the University of South Dakota.

Immediately following the bombing of Pearl Harbor, Robbie enlisted in the Navy, took part in five South Pacific theatre invasions, and received the Bronze Star for his efforts. He served until late 1945.

During his early law practice, Robbie served on the teaching staffs of the College of St. Catherine and Dakota Wesleyan University. In 1951 he became regional director of the Office of Price Stabilization in Minneapolis.

In 1948, he was elected to the South Dakota Legislature and served as both a State Representative and minority leader of the Democratic Caucus. He was state chairman of the Democratic Party from 1948-50. He ran for governor of South Dakota as the Democratic candidate in 1950.

Always active in urban affairs, he was author of the law which created the Minnesota Municipal Commission and chaired that body under the appointment of three governors from different political parties from 1959-65. He was a charter member of the Twin Cities Metropolitan Planning Commission, and he also served as the legal counsel to the Minnesota Legislative Committees and later for the United States Senate hearings on the Creation of the Department of Urban Affairs in the Cabinet during the Kennedy Administration.

In 1965, Robbie served as personal representative for Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on the Inaugural Committee which planned the inauguration of both Humphrey and President Lyndon B. Johnson. He currently is chairman of the Dade County Democratic Executive Committee.

Robbie and his wife, Elizabeth, had 11 children. Their daughter, Kathleen, lost her life in a drowning accident at Acapulco in 1971 at the age of 22. The family has established scholarships for underprivileged students in her memory. The family makes its home in Miami Shores.

taking over at Miami to 34-7-1 in regular season games and 5-2 in post-season action and annexed Coach of the Year honors for the sixth time in his 10-year tenure with the Baltimore Colts and the Dolphins.

At Baltimore, he had a 71-23-4 record, for an over-all mark of 105-30-5 that has left little doubt that he is, at age 43, right at the top of his profession—just 13 years since he began his pro career as an assistant coach at Detroit.

What great design and/or philosophy has brought the coach of the Miami Dolphins to that juncture of history?

None. At least that's the way Shula feels about it.

"I'm no miracle worker and don't make me out to be one," Shula says. "I don't have a magic formula that I'm going to give to the world as soon as I can write a book. I'm not a person with a great deal of finesse. I'm about as subtle as a punch in the mouth."

And then, he often concludes with the following statement, as close as he ever comes to a statement of philosophy:

"I'm just a guy who rolls up his sleeves and goes to work. I don't have peace of mind until I know I've given the game everything I can, because the whole idea is to somehow get an edge. Sometimes it takes just a little extra something to get that edge. But you have to get it.

"I try to do it with mental preparation, and physical preparation, and in general with over-all preparation to accomplish the ultimate. Of course I know that the people we play have the same goal—winning—so I try to put more effort in our preparation. You set a goal to be the best and then work hard every hour, every day striving to reach that goal.

"If you allow yourself to settle for anything less than No. 1, you're cheating yourself."

That attitude has carried Shula throughout his coaching career, which began as an assistant at Virginia and Kentucky after a seven-year turn as a defensive back in the NFL with Cleveland, Baltimore and Washington.

The school-of-thought to which he was constantly subjected—and reveled in—was the Paul Brown school.

"Paul Brown offered more than fundamentals," Shula explains. "He brought something special into pro coaching. I think that if you want to pinpoint Paul Brown's greatest contribution to football, it was his ability to teach. When you learned something from Paul Brown, you never forgot it."

That Shula has that same ability is obvious from a statement made by quarterback Bob Griese when he was asked about the Dolphins amazing flip-flop in Shula's first year—from a 3-10-1 record in 1969 to 10-4 in 1970.

"Our club was ready to go," Griese said emphatically, adding succinctly: "We were just looking for somebody to take us."

Shula advanced to pro status following his one year terms at Virginia and Kentucky when he began serving with the Lions in 1960 under George Wilson, the man who became the Dolphins' first coach and the man whom Shula ultimately replaced.

In 1963, Shula obtained his first head coaching assignment at Baltimore, and turned in an 8-6 record. Not one of his teams since has ever lost more games than it has won, and not one of his teams has ever had a record that wasn't better than the one compiled his rookie season.

Shula spent seven years directing the Colts, compiling the 71-23-4 record under his guidance, including a 13-1 record in 1968 that astounded pro football's world. The Colts also had one other season when they lost only one game, 1967, when they put together an 11-1-2 mark.

Shula personally was rewarded during those two seasons by being selected Coach of the Year, an honor that first came to him in 1964 (his second year with the Colts, who had a 12-2 record that season), and also has been bestowed his three seasons in Miami.

In 1970, Shula left Baltimore for Miami, becoming head coach and vice president. He purchased a home in Miami Lakes for his family—wife Dorothy, and five children, David, Donna, Sharon, Anne and Michael.

The Dolphins immediately turned around in 1970, gaining the playoffs before losing to Oakland, then in 1971 compiled a 10-3-1 record that eventually brought them the Eastern Division title in the American Football Conference after a playoff victory over Kansas City and a title game victory over Baltimore.

Despite all those achievements, accomplished in such a short time, Shula expressed disappointment after a Super Bowl loss to Dallas. That, however, was soon behind him and he turned to 1972 with the same dedication as before, but possibly just a bit more determination.

It paid off.

Prospects In General

There are those who have taken a look at the Miami Dolphins' exploits in 1972—a perfect 17-0 season and a Super Bowl championship—and asked the obvious question: What are the targets for 1973?

It is fact, of course, that the Dolphins of 1972 became the youngest team in NFL history to win a Super Bowl and became the first team ever to ride through an entire season undefeated.

Nevertheless, there are targets—beginning with a repeat victory in the Super Bowl, a feat that has not been achieved since the Green Bay Packers accomplished it the first two years of pro football's premier event. Another obvious target is a third consecutive American Conference crown.

Finally, there is one victory streak that the Dolphins were unable to exceed last season that is within their grasp this year—the record for most consecutive regular season triumphs over a period of more than one year.

The Dolphins currently are tied with Los Angeles-San Diego (1960-61) for third place with 15 successive victories, having won all 14 during the 1972 season and the final game of 1971. The targets are 16 victories by the Chicago Bears (1941-42) and 17 victories by the Bears (1933-34).

The team that will be challenging those streaks figures to be virtually the same as the one that marched through the 1972 season with an unblemished record. Here's how Coach Don Shula views the club in a position-by-position rundown:

Offense

QUARTERBACKS—"Bob Griese (injured in the fifth game of the season) came back in the Super Bowl and turned in the type of performance we've begun to expect from him. We picked up Earl Morrall for quarterback insurance early in the year and he demonstrated just exactly what quarterback insurance is by the great performance that he gave the Miami Dolphins. There wouldn't have been any 17-0 and there wouldn't have been any Super Bowl if it hadn't been for Earl Morrall. He just is a tremendous person who came in here and helped our team when it needed help. Bob has got it all ahead of him. He's a fine, young quarterback who really understands the game. He's very unselfish—knows how important the run is. I just think with Griese and Morrall we're in the best possible position that we can be in. Jim Del Gaizo is a fine young man who is a little restless. He wants to move. I think that he has value and I'm not going to give him away. If I can make a trade that will help the Dolphins, I'll consider it. If not, he'll be back with us. We also drafted a quarterback, Don Strock."

RUNNING BACKS—"As far as I was concerned, we had a delightful situation in 1972. I can't speak for Mercury Morris and Jim Kiick, but I was happy with the way things worked out. Larry Csonka (1,117 yards) is the constant back there. He gives us the strength and the big back. Occasionally, we'll put Kiick in on a passing situation and take Csonka out, but all other times Csonka is in the ball game. As far as the halfback position, Kiick (521 yards) and Merc (1,000 yards) both have strengths.

Kiick is a better pass receiver and maybe a shade better blocker. Mercury, on the other hand, has outstanding outside speed and does a good job of blocking also. I think the way they worked in 1972 demonstrated how you can effectively use three running backs and this is what our three-back offense is all about. Charley Leigh and Hubert Ginn give us added depth."

RECEIVERS—"That's another bright spot in our operation, Paul Warfield is in a class by himself as a wide receiver. Marv Fleming and Jim Mandich really spell each other out at tight end the way that you would like them to do. This has worked out extremely well for us. Larry Seiple is primarily a punter, but he can go in there and spell either tight end, or he could even go outside as a wide receiver. He really gives us a lot of versatility. Marlin Briscoe and Howard Twilley battled it out at the other wide receiver spot last season. Briscoe started, Twilley came on strong and then Briscoe couldn't get back in there. With a year of our system under his belt, Briscoe should be a stronger challenge to Twilley. We made an off-season trade for wide receiver Ron Sellers who is a big target who has caught a lot of passes in four years. We're hopeful he'll be able to step in and challenge for a No. 1 spot. Karl Noonan also returns after a year absence due to injury."

OFFENSIVE LINE—"These players have to be very happy with their accomplishments in 1972, having been instrumental in helping our team break the all-time rushing record (2,960 yards). The big adjustment we made last year was giving Jim Langer the opportunity to be the No. 1 center and he responded by playing every minute of every ball game. Guard Larry Little: his record speaks for itself. He's been the AFC's top offensive lineman for the last two years, and there is no question he's exceptional. Bob Kuechenberg, our other guard, is the most improved member of our offensive line. He's a tremendous competitor and works well with Little and Langer. You have to consider both Doug Crusan and Wayne Moore No. 1 tackles on our left side. They have played a lot of football, alternating for each other when injuries have occurred. On the right side, Norm Evans has held that down with solid play. Al Jenkins, who has played guard and tackle, gives us good reserve strength. Howard Kindig, who snaps on our punts and field goals, also can back up at tackle as well as center. Our early draft picks are players we hope will compete for No. 1 jobs. One is Chuck Bradley (first pick, second round), center, Oregon. He's a big football player who will help us on special teams while he's learning. Another is Leon Gray (third round), guard-tackle, Jackson State. We believe that in a year or two he'll be able to compete for a No. 1 job."

Defense

DEFENSIVE LINE—"There's been great improvement here. Defensive line coach Mike Scarry has worked hard and you can see the progress. Vern Den Herder turned in a strong performance for us last year, stepping in for injured Jim Riley (now retired) at left end. Actually, because of Den Herder we turned out to be stronger than we were a year before. Den Herder looks like he's got it all ahead of him. Tackle Manny Fernandez has been the outstanding defensive lineman year-in and year-out since I've been with the Dolphins. Right end Bill Stanfill has made continued improvement and he now ranks as one of the top defensive ends in football. We look for Stanfill to get even better because he has all the potential and equipment: great size, exceptional strength and quickness. Tackle Bob Heinz gave us solid play after Jim Dunaway was injured in 1972 and we expect Heinz to be a real fixture on our defensive line while we hope Dunaway will be able to come back from his back injury and compete. Reserve Maulty Moore has ability but we're bringing him along slowly because he needed a lot of work when he first came here. He should be ready to challenge for a No. 1 position. Mike Kadish, our No. 1 draft pick, never suited up but we haven't given up on him. We drafted some defensive ends in the middle rounds (Archie Pearmon, No. 8; Karl Lorch, 9; Ron Fernandes, 10; James Jackson, 16) in hopes that one or two might compete for positions on our 40-man squad."

LINEBACKERS—"Our linebackers, with the exception of Nick Buoniconti, all have youth on their side. Buoniconti gives us the experience in the middle. He worked harder at being a good middle linebacker in 1972 than he ever has in his life. He really studied it and he did an outstanding leadership job. Doug Swift was exceptional in his third year and Mike Kolen gives us real solid play on the weak side. We also have Jesse Powell, a good back-up and fine special teams player. We have a young linebacker, Larry Ball, who we think will challenge more this year either as a strong side linebacker or defensive end. And there's Bob Matheson, who is our main man in the '53-defense' coming in at either linebacker or end and it all gives us a lot of versatility as to what we can do defensively. Bob can also back up the middle, having played it at Cleveland. He can play the weak side—he's done that for us several times—and is on all the special teams. He's been a tremendous addition to our football team."

DEFENSIVE BACKS—"We're a little thin if we get somebody hurt in the defensive backfield. Last year we gambled and had a rookie (Charley Babb) as the backup safety. Fortunately, safeties Jake Scott and Dick Anderson and cornerbacks Tim Foley and Curtis Johnson played most of the year. Babb helped us on the special teams and demonstrated that he could go in and play. This year, with Babb in his second season we're going to feel a lot better about our deep people. Then there's Lloyd Mumphord, who was a No. 1 but was relegated to No. 2 and became the captain of our special teams. In the Super Bowl, when Foley wasn't able to play, Mumphord played the whole game and did an outstanding job. We're happy with our secondary. It's been tremendous in the three years it's been together. And, we think we have good depth with Mumphord and Babb."

Specialty

KICKING GAME—"We're strong here. Larry Seiple is an exceptional athlete back there to punt the football. Garo Yepremian, we feel, is one of the top field goal kickers in the league, a real pressure guy kicking the football—not throwing it. Garo has done a great job for us. We're also pleased with our special teams. Our kickoff returns, we think, are strong with Charlie Leigh and Mercury Morris back there. The same is true on punt returns with either Jake Scott or Charlie Leigh as the deep man and Dick Anderson as our short man."

Having worked out considerably on his strength, weight and pass rush during the off-season, Den Herder was ready for the challenge. 1972 after back surgery. The first half of the season he started and helped the Dolphins to a 6-0 record with 24 tackles, one sack, one pass defended. Born: September 28, 1942   Ninth year (AFL Exp., 1966)

PRO: Only player left from the AFL expansion draft that furnished Miami with 31 players in 1966. Starting eighth year as a regular right tackle. Has played in more Dolphins regular-season games (96 of 98) than any other player. Originally drafted 14th by Houston in 1965; played one year for the Oilers. FERNANDEZ, MANNY — Defensive Tackle

Ht.: 6-2   Wt.: 250   Utah

Born: July 3, 1946   Sixth year (FA, 1968)

PRO: One of the outstanding free agent surprises in Miami's history, Fernandez has been the Dolphins' premier defensive lineman—having won the honor five consecutive years. Had probably his most outstanding game as a pro in Super Bowl VII when he was credited with 11 tackles, despite being double-teamed much of the time. Key to Miami's "53-defense," because he wound up double-teamed more than 150 times in 1972. "That allows someone to be free to get to the quarterback or runner," says defensive line coach Mike Scarry. Compensates for lack of size with quickness, mobility and strength. Finished 1972 as leading lineman in tackles with 68 and had 39 assists for 107 stops—second only to Nick Buoniconti —and up from his personal high of 67 the year before. Got to the quarterback five times, recovered two fumbles. Named to All-AFC second team by UPI following 1972 season.

COLLEGE: Three-year letterman; captain of Utah squad as a senior.

PERSONAL: Born in Oakland, now lives in Miramar, Fla. Attended Chabot Junior College. Won three letters in both football and wrestling at San Lorenzo (Calif.) High. Set school bench press record of 305 pounds. Body surfs and water skis. Plays golf. Married. Owns Manny Fernandez Mobile Home Sales in Hallandale, Fla.

FLEMING, MARV — Tight End

Ht.: 6-4   Wt.: 232   Utah
Born: January 2, 1942   Eleventh year (Trade, 1970)

PRO: A veteran of three NFL title games and four Super Bowls, he wound up a Dolphin after playing out his option at Green Bay following the 1969 season. Fleming is "as good a blocking tight end as there is in football," says Coach Don Shula. He's also a pretty good "money" player, having earned more in the post season than any other player. He caught 13 passes during the entire 1972 regular season and then nabbed five against Pittsburgh alone in the AFC Championship game. His blocking has helped establish the Dolphins' running game as No. 1 in pro football. Tied with Herb Adderley for most Super Bowl bonuses.

COLLEGE: Physical education major. All-Skyline Conference selection. Played in East-West Shrine game.

PERSONAL: Born in Longview, Texas, and now lives in Compton, Calif. Attended Compton High. Single. Has studied acting under Lee Strasberg at Los Angeles Institute of Theatre and Arts, but believes there are better opportunities in movie producing. Co-author of a book, "The Mind Garden."

Injured in 1971 pre-season and missed all but final game due to knee surgery. Originally signed with San Francisco as a free agent after a basketball career at Lamar Tech. Tried at tight end and tackle then rode cab squad.

MORRALL, EARL
Quarterback

Ht.: 6-2   Wt.: 210
Born: May 17, 1934
Michigan State
Eighteenth Year (WA, 1972)

PRO: Coming off the sidelines after an injury to Bob Griese, Earl Morrall took over and led the Dolphins to 12 consecutive victories during the 1972 season and earned the team's most coveted award—Most Valuable Player. "There wouldn't have been an undefeated season and the World Championship if it wasn't for Earl," said coach Don Shula. But Morrall is no stranger to success. He was the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1968, went to the Pro Bowl as a Steeler in 1957 and was MVP for his team in 1963, 1965, 1968 and now 1972. He added to his list of awards this year: AFC Player of the Year by the Sporting News; All-NFL, AP; All-AFC, AP; All-NFL second team, NEA; Pro Football Weekly Comeback of the Year and the City of Hope Victor Award. Morrall started his career as No. 1 draft choice of San Francisco in 1956, saw action with Pittsburgh (1957), Detroit (1958-64), and the New York Giants (1965-67) before he started working for Shula at Baltimore. Shula picked him up in 1972 off the waiver list for 'insurance' just as he had earlier. In 1968 the insurance policy paid off with Morrall stepping in for an injured Johnny Unitas to lead the Colts to 15 victories and a trip to the Super Bowl.

COLLEGE: An All-America quarterback at Michigan State. Morrall was a star in the 1955 Rose Bowl and played in the 1956 College All-Star game.

PERSONAL: Born in Muskegon, Mich., where he went to high school and played both football and baseball. Morrall is married and has five children, Matthew Earl, Mardi Jane, Mindi Rae, Mitchell and Meghan. They live in a Detroit suburb, Bloomfield Heights, during the off-season.

TWILLEY, HOWARD — Wide Receiver

Ht.: 5-10   Wt.: 185   Tulsa
Born: December 25, 1943   Eighth year (12-D, 1966)

PRO: Survived the challenge of another receiver for the third successive year, remaining the team's starting wide receiver opposite Paul Warfield. In 1972, following a pre-season leg injury which hampered his progress, Twilley healed in time to take over for Marlin Briscoe, injured in the pre-game warmup at New York. He never lost the job after that, finishing the year with his highest per-catch average as a pro and his longest reception. He was the club's No. 3 receiver in 1972. Twilley, one of only three original Dolphins left on the 47-man squad, has overcome injuries to rank as one of the team's top receivers. Suffered cracked jaw in 1966, missing last eight games; fractured elbow in 1969, missing final 10 games.

COLLEGE: Set 10 NCAA pass receiving marks as a consensus All-America, shattering four of five major reception records. YEPREMIAN, GARO　　　　Kicker

Ht.: 5-8　　Wt.: 175　　None
Born: June 2, 1944　　Sixth year (FA, 1970)

PRO: Garo joined the Dolphins in late summer of 1970 as a free agent after two years with Detroit and two years out of action. On a recommendation, Coach Don Shula signed Garo without ever having seen him kick. Yepremian quickly became one of the most popular Dolphins, with small size, quick wit and kicking ability. At Detroit, he obtained a tryout without any previous experience in football. His youth was spent as a soccer player in his native Cyprus and later in England. His first season with the Lions was sensational, setting an NFL record in one game against Minnesota, with six field goals, including four in one quarter, another NFL record. He continued to set records when he came to Miami. In 1971 he led the NFL in scoring with 117 points and was 100 per cent in PAT attempts. This past season, Garo had 24 field goals, 48 PAT for a total of 115 points. Yepremian added to his fame this year in Super Bowl VII by attempting to throw a pass after recovering a blocked field goal attempt. Won longest game at Kansas City in 1971 playoff with 37-yard field goal at 22:40 of overtime.

PERSONAL: Although Garo never graduated from high school, he speaks four languages. He was born in Cyprus and played both soccer and tennis for American Academy in Larnaca, Cyprus. Garo manufactures ties and owns two tie stores. He is married and lives in Miami.
